The following insulin dosage chart outlines your veterinarian's customized plan for managing your pet's diabetes.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Blood Glucose Level</th>
<th>TOO LOW</th>
<th>BORDERLINE LOW</th>
<th>IDEAL</th>
<th>BORDERLINE HIGH</th>
<th>TOO HIGH</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Blood Glucose Reading</td>
<td>Below _____ mg/dL</td>
<td>____ to ____ mg/dL</td>
<td>____ to ____ mg/dL</td>
<td>____ to ____ mg/dL</td>
<td>Above _____ mg/dL</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Insulin Dose</td>
<td>1. Recheck immediately to verify.</td>
<td>1. If blood glucose is between ____ and ____, recheck blood glucose one hour after feeding.</td>
<td>1. If blood glucose is between ____ and ____, recheck blood glucose one hour after feeding.</td>
<td>1. Recheck immediately to verify.</td>
<td>1. If reading is still high, contact your veterinarian immediately.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Action(s)</td>
<td>2. If alert, feed and recheck in 15 minutes.</td>
<td>2. If second reading is still between ____ and ____ contact your veterinarian.</td>
<td>2. If second reading is still between ____ and ____ contact your veterinarian.</td>
<td>2. If second reading is still high, contact your veterinarian immediately.</td>
<td>2. If reading is still high, contact your veterinarian immediately.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Other Action(s)</td>
<td>3. If weak, give Karo syrup, call your veterinarian or emergency facility immediately.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>